

This months Coin Club meeting, Thursday April 18th is an Auction night.

There are 170 lots, with a large number of professional graded slabbed coins. If you are looking to upgrade some of your collections, or just want to get some nice collectible coins, this might be a good auction to attend. Looking at the auction listing, many of the coins with minimums bids have prices well below Gray sheet price. There is a link to a listings on our web page: jcns.org

We get access to our room at 5:00 pm, we need a few minutes to set up, so we will be ready for viewing, starting about 5:30 pm. We will start the auction at 6:30 pm.

If you haven't been to a meeting lately, we are at:

Olathe Community Center Room C
Kansas City Road and Ridgeview, 1205 East Kansas City Rd

Hope to see you on Thursday!
